THE WAR IN JAPAN: . By the arrival of the Mancha from Shangbal, we have further intelligence from Hiogo and Osaka relative to the disturbances there. It Puth. with the forcigners on shore, resulting in the wounding of a graman attached to the U.S. S. Onglete, and a French Marine belonging to the Land Laplace, and of a French sailor. The account of order the affair in the Hiego and Osaka Herald on to is that on the 4th of Fabruary a holy of about 150 Japanese entered the city of Robe under the command of a Secretary to Prince Bizes. As they passed through the city at the cry stanters! (fall down) the natives immediately fell upon their knees, but a foreigner named Collins, who was by, excited the crowd by not following the example of the natives, and was accordingly immediately set upon by them. but managed to escape. As the crowd passed on they next attacked a Japanese servant in the coupler of Sir Harry Parkes, and a short distance further on two Prench sailors. At one a thrust was made with a spear, but his companion saved idin from a fatal wound by saizing the blade with his hand, and turning it on one side. This seemed to have frightened the suffers. who immediately set off at full speed, pursued by the Jupanesa. firing at them, and indiscrimatnately at any foreigner who showed he bead. Two wore wounded a waiman attrached to the Oneile, and a priving attached to the Leploce. In the North Chine Hernht we roud :-

The Treson's officers have left Hiogo, where party of the Bixon defectors retainers made on indiscriminate attack on foreigners on the 4th . instant, which was promptly punished. The nitack was salled and apparently unprovokel; but the firing of the Japanese was fortunately so but that only two casualties have occurred, neither of which are likely to result fatally. The detachments of H. M. 9th He guest word at once called out, and parented the Japanese, who showed light for about five minutes, but then backs and flat. The prograted escort, with Sir Harry Parkes at their head, captured three small field pieces. The cruid bally of Bizon's men, hearing of the affair, did not attempt to pass through Hingo.

An envey from the Mikado arrived at Hingo on the 7th, and led in interview with the Foreign Representatives, to whom be officially communicated the clause of Government, and gave assurances of good intentions, which led. to the re-emberkation of many of the marries and sailors who had been mounting guard ashore, since the outrage on the 4th. Orders have beer larged to Chasia and Saturnas in the Mikado's usune, to be careful that no radeness. it lawle-suest is shown towards foreigners. Everything appears now to be fending to quietness at Osaka. It remains to be seen wont, will occur at Yolog as we hear from pri-
